G. E. TAYLOR, MISSING 10 DAYS,
FOUND IN LONELY GULCH; ORDER
TO HALT DISOBEYED; IS SHOTEvery Chance Given to Stop and Explain Actions But Runs
Away—Reported Two Others Wait Investigation—Man's Connections to Be Traced if Possible

George E. Taylor, former mess sergeant of Company E, 32d Infantry, a deserter from the United States Army, and under suspicion as a possible spy, went to his death in a lonely gulch inside the Schofield reservation on Sunday evening. He was killed by an armed guard of the United States Army, according to the report which reached Honolulu yesterday.

Following the death of the suspect, it is reported that a corporal and a private of the same regiment were imprisoned by the military authorities. Whether Taylor was a member of a group of suspicious characters is yet to be determined.

Taylor was called upon to halt by an armed guard about 5 o'clock on Sunday evening in Waialae Gulch. He was given every chance to halt and upon refusal to obey the order, the guard was ordered to fire. Three shots were fired, all taking effect. One of the shots found its spot in Taylor's right leg, severing an artery, the wound helping to cause his death. One shot went through his neck, another breaking a bone in his arm. He was started for the post hospital, but died from his wounds before reaching the barracks.

It is said that Taylor deserted from his regiment ten days ago, and since that time has been hiding in the lonely gulch, coming out at times supposedly to communicate with the two enlisted men who have been apprehended, according to the story which reached Honolulu today. A 1000-mile military road for transportation on the Oahu Railway, purchased on June 10, was found in his hut. The book was nearly used up, which is taken to show that Taylor or some other person had been frequently traveling back and forth to Honolulu.

About 1 o'clock on Sunday afternoon Corporal James W. Guiley of Company A, 32d Infantry, went out for a stroll. Taking a road which led down toward the gulch, he had covered perhaps two miles when he struck a narrow trail. Guiley instantly strode up the trail, and after traversing some distance discovered a hut barely high enough for a man to crawl into. The hut was carefully shielded from prying eyes, and Guiley did not see the little shack until he came to within ten feet of the spot.

The hut was placed in such a position that it controlled the entire view of the gulch, but was hidden in the thick brush, so that it was impossible to locate the position from any point on the top of the gulch.

Realizing that no laborer would erect such a shack, and seeing no special need for a home in the lonely gulch, he became suspicious, and began to look around. Taking the trail

CITY-COUNTY VALUATION IS
$112,000,000Increase of $7,000,000 Gives
General Fund $850,000;
Will Overcome Deficit

The tax valuation of the city and county of Honolulu is approximately $112,000,000. The exact figures, it is expected, will be ready to be given out either this afternoon or tomorrow by Charles T. Wilder, tax assessor.

This amount is far in excess of the valuation anticipated and it is declared, kills forever the spectre of a deficit in the general fund of the county government. It was estimated that the valuation would be close to $105,000,000 and an increase of $7,000,000 comes as a big surprise.

Two-thirds of 1 per cent of the $112,000,000, or $852,000, is the share of the city and county for the year 1917. Of this amount $68,000 goes to the cash basis fund and $208,000 to the permanent improvement fund, leaving a balance for the general fund of $852,000. To this is added the receipts from the dog, poll, department and liquor taxes and license, bringing the total in the general fund to approximately $850,000, or $455,000 for each half year.

In regard to the deficit, the board which just went out of office appropriated $355,000 during the last six months, which, together with the previous deficit, estimated at $85,000, is a total of $440,000, or less than the income.

While these figures are only approximate, as the exact tax valuation has not been given out by Assessor Wilder, they give a general idea of what the new board of supervisors will have to spend during the next six months.

Next year the board will receive $1,120,000, or one per cent of the valuation under the new ruling.

Regulations have been issued by the Australian government authorizing the appointment of a board to regulate the importation of luxuries.

PANIC REIGNS IN CHINESE CAPITAL;
UPRISING FEAREDArmed Guards Protect Boy
Emperor Against Possible
Assassination(Special Cable to Nippon Jiji)
TOKIO, Japan, July 3.—A report has reached Tokyo that the residents of Peking are in a panic. Hundreds of them are leaving the city, and a general spirit of unrest prevails throughout the Chinese capital.

Word reached here today that the southern provinces were planning an uprising against the Manchurian prince, who has been enthroned as emperor. It is expected that Kwangtung and other provinces in South China will oppose the establishment of a monarchy.

Armed guards have surrounded the place where the young emperor is making his home, and every precaution is taken to prevent his assassination. It has been reported that a number of the anti-monarchists have plotted against the boy emperor.

Gen. Chang Shun, who is in command of the soldiers in the province of Chihai, placed Hsuan Tung upon the throne and then immediately notified Baron G. Hayashi, Japanese minister at Peking, that the republic was no more, and a constitutional monarchy was proclaimed. Hayashi telegraphed to the foreign department.

The imperial foreign relations investigating committee, composed of the strongest men in Japan, will meet this evening to discuss whether or not Japan will recognize Hsuan Tung, Emperor Yoshito, chairman of this committee, will preside. The report of this investigating committee will be final.

GUARD GENERAL
SEES HOPE YET
FOR MOBILIZING

Brig. Gen. Samuel I. Johnson, the adjutant general of Hawaii, has not given up hope for a mobilization of the guard, according to a statement made by him today in regard to the war department's stand against such action as made known to Gen. Strong in a letter yesterday from the war department.

As stated yesterday afternoon, Gen. Johnson again began communication with the war department a few days ago when he received advice from Washington similar to those which came to Gen. Strong.

"I am still entirely hopeful," said the guard officer today, "that the Hawaii organization will yet be mobilized. So far I have received no reply to my latest request."

The general expressed this feeling to the war department when he wrote on June 27. He also urged the privilege to enlist married men again in the guard. The letter follows in part:

"As you are, of course, aware, Gen. Strong has explained these conditions in a letter in which he strongly urges mobilization of the Hawaiian guard. The governor has also cabled the secretary of war, through the secretary of the interior, to the effect that mobilization will not affect food production in the territory. I, therefore, still have hope that when these opinions are presented the war department may change its policy. I sincerely hope that you may see fit to recommend mobilization of the National Guard of Hawaii. The officers and men have been working with great earnestness and enthusiasm to fit themselves for just such a national emergency as now exists. To call the entire guard of the continental United States into the federal service and leave Hawaii out of it is a great disappointment to all concerned and will result, I am convinced, in permanent injury to the National Guard of Hawaii."

"It, however, the decision not to

OIL CRISIS CONFRONTING CITY CLEARED UP
The fuel oil crisis which confronted the city Monday was cleared up at noon today when the oil companies handed in to the purchasing agent bids on oil to supply the city and county for the next six months. The bids will be opened this evening at the meeting of the board of supervisors, although the awarding will be done at a future meeting. Harry Murray, superintendent of the water and sewer department, says he has only two more days' supply of fuel oil on hand to run the water and sewer pumps.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon M. L. Needham, senior police sergeant and for 15 years connected with the local police department, was scheduled to move up to a captaincy as successor to Capt. Dan Kamahu, resigned. The sheriff has named no one as yet to take the place either of Clerk Solomon Meheula, who went to the county jail this morning as assistant jailer, or of Needham, which will necessitate several promotions all along the line and a selection of two from the eligible list of civilians.

SOLDIER WHO SHOT MAN GETS FOUR YEARS
Waldo E. Cape, an enlisted man recently convicted of an assault with a dangerous weapon, was sentenced by Circuit Judge Heen today to serve not less than four years in Oahu prison. Cape is alleged to have shot a man following a quarrel at Pearl City. On the witness stand he testified he shot in self-defense.

At 2:30 this afternoon Alfred Castle, treasurer and executive officer of the War Relief Committee of Hawaii, announced that the committee is forwarding by the Wilhelmina at 4 p. m. today a grand total of $25,861.25 to the American Red Cross headquarters in Washington. "The committee takes this opportunity of thanking the donors," said Senator Castle this afternoon. "The donations that have come in are generous but the number of givers is comparatively small, being to date an even 100."

COL. CROXTON TO COMMAND 63RD REGIMENT
Word that his new assignment will be the 63rd Infantry, Presidio, San Francisco, was received yesterday in a personal message by Col. Richard C. Croxtan, senior instructor-instructor of the 1st Infantry, National Guard, who is one of the officers recently ordered to report on the mainland. Croxtan has also received the commission promoting him from lieutenant-colonel to colonel. The 62nd and 63rd regiments were recently created from portions of the 12th Infantry, and are among those probably scheduled for service overseas. Col. Croxtan will be head of the 63rd.

STATES BUT WON'T
SEE WASHINGTON

Prof. William A. Bryan, a member of the faculty of the College of Hawaii and prominent in local Democratic circles, was to leave for the mainland with Mrs. Bryan this afternoon on a year's sabbatical leave from the college after seven years of work.

After visiting Professor Bryan's mother in Whittier, Cal., they will go East, visiting St. Louis and Chicago, and stopping for a few weeks in Buffalo, N. Y. Mrs. Bryan's former home was in Buffalo. Bryan is taking with him a collection of marine mollusks, gathered by him during the last several years, and while in the East will compare types and write a monograph on marine mollusks in the Hawaiian Islands. Much of his time is preparing the book will be spent at the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences.

Prof. and Mrs. Bryan intend to return to Honolulu about February 1. He says he is not going on a political mission nor will he visit Washington.

BERKELEY SEMINARY
PRESIDENT IS HERE

Rev. C. S. Nash and wife of Berkeley, Cal., arrived on the S. S. Maui this morning and are registered at the McDonald.

Dr. Nash is president of the Pacific Theological Seminary of Berkeley and comes to Honolulu to fill the pulpit of Central Union church for the coming two Sundays. Dr. Nash expects to visit Hawaii and Maui and will remain about five weeks in the islands.

mobilize the Hawaiian guard remains unchanged; I earnestly request that the necessary authorization be given to enlist married men and those with dependent relatives. Recent instructions from the militia bureau to effect the discharge of men of the above classes resulted in the loss of between 1000 and 1100 men. These were for the most part the older soldiers and experienced noncommissioned officers, and their loss has been a great handicap to the guard. If the National Guard of Hawaii is for service in the Hawaiian Islands only, there seems no reason why these men should not be returned to duty, especially as with few exceptions, they protested vigorously against being discharged from the service. In order that this matter of reinstating the married men may be given official consideration, it is made the subject of a special letter which goes by the same mail."

FATHER AND SON SHOT; JANITOR IS HELD BY POLICEJapanese Hunting Mangoes at Kaulani School Wounded;
Boy in Hospital

A 15-year-old Japanese boy is in the Children's Hospital with a bullet wound in his right thigh. His father is at home with a bullet wound in his right hand, and David Kaulani is being held for investigation by the police as the result of a shooting affray on the grounds of the Kaulani school early this morning.

Probation Officer Joseph Leal was awakened at 3:30 a. m. by a telephone call from the Lanakila home, Palama, requesting him to come to the home as a Japanese man and boy had been shot.

According to the story told Leal by the Japanese, the father and son were passing through the school grounds searching for mangoes that had fallen off the trees. The father carried a lantern. Without warning, they claim, the janitor of the school came out on the lanai of his cottage with a parlor rifle and opened fire on them, one bullet striking the father in the hand and another the boy in the thigh. After the shooting the father and son went to Lanakila home for help.

Officer Leal says he then placed the janitor in the custody of the police, where he will remain until physicians pass upon the condition of the boy now in the hospital.

OZAWA CASE MAY BE IN U. S. SUPREME COURT

That the procedure of taking to the supreme court of the United States the case of Takao Ozawa, whose petition for naturalization as an American citizen recently was denied by the local federal court, already has been completed is indicated by the fact that Ozawa's attorneys in Honolulu have paid the docketing fee.

Ozawa appeared from the local decision to the circuit court of appeals of the ninth circuit, San Francisco, which tribunal reserved the case to the supreme court of the United States. It is anticipated that the case will be argued in the supreme court not later than the middle of October, and in this case a decision would be handed down about the first of November.

A Mr. Smith was given this afternoon by the Star-Bulletin "family" to Harry Hayward, manager of the job printing department, who is sitting on the island that Washington for San Francisco, and then from there to

Wilson In Special Order Exempts
Military Men From Draft Provisos

Whereas, on the 16th day of May, A. D. 1917, the President of the United States did issue a proclamation calling upon all persons subject to registration for military purposes to register as provided by the act of congress of May 18, 1917, entitled "An act to authorize the president to increase temporarily the military establishment of the United States."

And whereas, in such proclamation it was provided among other things that "in territories of Alaska, Hawaii and Porto Rico, a day for registration will be named in a later proclamation."

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, for the purpose of fixing the date for registration in the Territory of Hawaii, do hereby set, fix and establish Tuesday, the thirty-first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, as the day of registration, and I do hereby direct that during such day, between the hours of 7 o'clock a. m. and 9 o'clock p. m. thereof, all male persons subject to registration for military purposes, the same being "those who shall have attained their twenty-first birthday and who shall not have attained their thirty-first birthday on or before the day herein named are required to register excepting only officers and enlisted men of the regular army, the regular army reserve, the officers' reserve corps, the enlisted reserve corps, the national guard and national guard reserve recognized by the militia bureau of the war department, the navy, the marine corps, the coast guard and the naval militia, naval reserve force, marine corps reserve, and national naval voluntary recognized by the navy department," do present themselves for the purpose of registration for military purposes, at such places and to be registered by such officials as shall be designated and appointed by the governor of the Territory of Hawaii for that purpose.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this second day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and forty-first.

By the President:

ROBERT LANSING,
Secretary of State.

President Wilson's proclamation designating Tuesday, July 31, as the day for registration in Hawaii for military service, was received from Washington, D. C., this morning in a cablegram to Governor Pinkham.

The proclamation carries the provision that all male residents of the territory between the ages of 21 and 30, both inclusive, must register on July 31, between the hours of 7 o'clock in the morning and 9 o'clock at night.

Those who shall be exempt from registration are designated as follows:

Officers and enlisted men in the regular army, regular army reserve, officers' reserve corps, national guard reserve, national guard reserve recognized by the militia bureau of the war department, navy, marine corps, coast guard, naval militia, naval reserve force and marine corps reserve.

With the receipt of the President's proclamation, the central registration board is speeding up its work and this afternoon was to begin the distribution of 10,000 posters containing information for the several thousand men of various nationalities in the territory who will be required to register.

Posters Translated
These posters are to be translated into Hawaiian, Japanese, Chinese, Korean, Spanish and Portuguese and during the next week will be scattered broadcast throughout the territory.

One of the plans for the distribution is to secure the cooperation of the postmaster and have him send 10 posters to each of the 93 or more post-offices in the territory. Another plan is to send about 20 of the posters to each deputy sheriff in the territory with the request that he post them in conspicuous places in his district. Every district in the territory will be covered. About 50 or 60 copies of the President's proclamation also will be distributed. Oahu will be taken care of first; the distribution on the other islands to follow immediately.

Each poster is headed with the following:

"It is requested that these posters be displayed in postoffices, stores, villages and all possible public places."

"All persons able to translate from the English language into Hawaiian, Japanese, Chinese, Japanese, Chinese, Filipino dialects, Russian, etc., languages, are requested to so translate in personal conversations with bystanders and with acquaintances."

"Official documents will be distributed in due order."

To date the registration board reports that about 80 persons, subject to registration, have filled out registration cards prior to leaving for the mainland. A meeting of the board is scheduled for 2 o'clock next Thursday afternoon.

PARIS WILD AS AMERICANS COME
FOR THE FOURTH

PARIS, France, July 3.—Headed by its own band, to the list of American patriotic music, light of step and splendid in appearance, the American battalion which will take part in the Fourth of July parade in Paris tomorrow arrived here today.

Enormous enthusiasm welcomed the Americans, whose band played "Tanks Doodle," "Dixie" and other well-known tunes. French girls lined the streets, bestowing bouquets and kisses on the Americans. Wounded French soldiers, some for recuperation, lined by the side of the marching columns. Children of France lined on the street as the flag passed, many of them effusively praying.

The soldierly appearance of the Americans greatly impressed the French capital. Lines and banners, their phrases in much praise of the allies, the Britishers or the French and their respectful and courteous took the fancy of the crowds.

None of several accidents reported to the police yesterday proved serious.

Philly Santos was taken to the Queen's hospital with a bruised face and leg when he was hit on Lum street shortly after noon by car 558, driven by Simoes Evangelista. Mary Alo Lee was treated at the emergency hospital for cuts on the back and leg when she received "when" her hair caught in a machine at the White Sea Laundry in Viengard street. Joe and Valentine Boudin hit leg when he fell from the window of a house in Makiki about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and George De Motte, a news boy, went to the emergency hospital with a bruise on the head when he was hit by a car driven by Neil Statney at the corner of Viengard and

Minister Kato Defends Despatch of Fleet to Mediterranean; Russians Again Smash German Front or East and Take Many Prisoners

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

TOKIO, Japan, July 3.—Minister of the Navy Kato told members of the Imperial Diet today that if necessary Japan stands ready to send a fleet to the Atlantic ocean to cooperate with the Allies there. The announcement of these tentative plans was made by Admiral Kato in reply to criticism of the navy department's policy in sending a fleet to the Mediterranean sea. The recent battle in which a Japanese destroyer was sunk with the loss of a captain and many others added to the sharpness of the criticism. Replying, Minister Kato declared that Japan will send the fleet to the Atlantic if thereby Japanese in the war can be made of definite value.

RUSS OFFENSIVE
WINNING GROUND
FROM TEUTONICS

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

PETROGRAD, Russia, July 3.—Smashing heavily forward last night and today, the Russian troops are continuing their successful offensive launched on Sunday. They have taken 6000 more prisoners and are advancing toward Zlochoff in Galicia. They have occupied the villages of Prasovce, Zbaroff and Korshidov. The Teutons are retreating eastward across the Stripsa river country.

A Finnish division participated with the Russians in the fighting at Konisky. The offensive there continues favorably.

The guns captured from the enemy are now turned on them.

BERLIN, Germany, July 3.—The Russian army made a success on the western bank of the Stripsa river, extending north of the war gap they made in the Teutonic lines yesterday. Strong Russian attacks at Konisky have been repulsed with heavy losses.

Attacks on the Berezna heights yesterday were not repeated today.

FRENCH AGAIN
HOLD AISNE IN FURIOUS FIGHT

PARIS, France, July 3.—The most violent attacks the Germans have yet made on the Aisne front were hurled against the gallant French defenders today and the defenders won. Every charge was beaten down and finally the Teutons attempts to storm the positions were abandoned.

HORNER DOES NOT FAVOR
CONSERVING ALL COWS

"I am not in favor of saving all cows from slaughter, young, old and otherwise, and have been incorrectly quoted on this point," said Albert Horner today. "My position and that which I think all ranchmen should take in reason was expressed in the report to the food commission published in the Star-Bulletin last month. In that report you will find the following:

"Considering the present emergency, it would seem the part of wisdom that all young cows and heifers should be conserved and bred, the old cows, if any, might be slaughtered. To assist those ranchmen who are short on feed and to prevent the slaughter of cows and heifers, two methods are herewith suggested."

"This, I think, will be borne out by the practical experience of ranchmen. I certainly do not believe in slaughtering the surplus of cows that are
